WHERE AS in the parliament holden at Westm̃ the xijth yere of the reign of King Edward the iijth late King of Englonde, amonge other thingis it was ordeyned established and enacted, that where any Wollen Clothes were or shuld be packed in any porte within this realme of Englonde, and then to be carried from thens to any Porte within this realme to be caried õṽ the See, that then the same Clothes so to be packed and caried shuld be packed in the p̃sens of the Customers and Countrollers of the porte where the same Clothes shuld be so packed, and þat the custumes and subsidies of the seid Clothes due to the King shuld be paid and content unto the collectours of the custome within the same Poorte, as in the seid acte pleyndly appereth; whiche Acte for diṽs and many causes and consideracōns is thought hurtfull and p̃judiciall aswell unto the King oure sõveign lord as to the marchauntes: In consideracion wherof be it ordeyned established and enacted by the King oure Sõveign Lord by thassent of the lordes sp̃uall and tempall and the Comens of this p̃sent parliament assembled and by auctorite of the same, that from hensfourth the custome and subsidie of all Wollen Clothes to be shipped or caried õṽ the See, where so eṽ they be packed, shall be paid to the Customers of the Poorte or Portes where any such Clothes shalbe lade or shipped, or to their Deputes; this Acte or any other Acte here before made to the contr̃y notwithstanding.

CHAPTER VII.

AN ACTE agaynst ryotts and unlawfull assemblyes.

PRAYEN the Comens of this youre land in this p̄sent parliament assembled, That where for the greate suertie rest peas and t̄nquillite of your seid Comens true liegemen and subgettis infuted in this youre realme, dyv̄s and many gode statutes actes and ordynaunces have ben made in tymes past ordeyned and establisshed to subdue and punyssh riottes for the unlauffull reysing and leding of [your] people, riottes routis and other unlauffull assemblees, wherby many evyll dedis jopdies pilles feere and drede to your subgettis have growen, and theruppon greate penalties sette upon the seid riotto's and offenders, as in dyv̄s remembred statutes actes and ordynaunces in the daies of youre noble p̄genytours at sefall tymes made ordeyned and p̄vyded more at large doth and may appere; Yet the same actes notwithstanding some p̄sones not dreding God their Sovereign lorde ne the punysshment of the lawes made and had in this behalfe ofte tymes aswell, by colour of suche offices as they have obteyned as Receyvoirs Stuardes and Bailiffs of Lordships and other offices as by prevy retyndours by othe p̄mysse covenaut and otherwise and claymyng also dutie of ther tenautes and s̄vautes, where none suche dutie is, to goe with theym when such assemble rioute or route shalbe, And after the same dyv̄s of the seid s̄vautes and p̄sones ofte tymes retret and absent them selfe by the agrement covyne and counsell of their seid Maisters and of the seid principall riottours, so that they may not be taken ne brought to answeere to the lawe as the lawes requyre, And if eny enditements be had it shalbe made upon suche p̄sones as so retret and absent theymselvf and nothing founden ayeynst the seid principalles riottours, in disceite and fraude of the seid gode statutes actes and ordynaunces therof made, to the great corage boldnesse and comforte of the seid evyll doers, moost daunger jeopdie and parell of youre seid well disposed subgettis, and to the worst example that therby may ensue if hasty remedy therin be not p̄vided: It may therfor pleas youre Highnes of youre most lovyng disposicion that ye bere and owe to the comen wele of this youre land, and to the great suertie of youre subgettis of the same, by thadvyse of the lordes sp̄uall and tempall and the Comens in this p̄sent parliament assembled and by auctorite of the same to do ordeyne enacte and establissh, that what so ev̄ p̄sone or p̄sones w̄in this youre realme, of what estate degree of condicion he be, that hereafter unlauffully reyse assemble or lede youre people within this youre realme, without youre cōmaundement or auctorite of youre lawes, and cōmitte any riotte that then if the p̄ty greved or any other p̄sone in the Kingis behalf complayn to the Justices of pe Peas within the countie where such riotte is doon, or to any of them havynge auctorite to enquire of the same where suche riotte and unlawfull assemble shalbe made, by bill conteynynge the riotte and the circumstaunce of the same, and of what toun shire mystere or condicion ev̄y of the p̄sones ayenst whom the same compleynt be made is dwelling, or els if the seid riottours be endited therof, then therupon the seid Justices and ev̄y of theym have auctorite and p̄ouer, in the next gen̄all sessions of the Peas within the same Countie to be holden after the compleynt so to theym made or inditement therof hadde afore the same [Justice,'] to do make p̄clamacion that the seid maister or maisters principall or principallis leder or leders that unlauffully cause the seid people to gedre or rise, that they appere p̄sonelly at the next gen̄all sessions of the peas after p̄r seid p̄clamacion so made, and ev̄y other p̄sone or p̄sones that were p̄sent and attendaunt upon hym or theym by his or their cōmaundement p̄curing or assent conteyned in the seid p̄clamacion at the seid riotte route and assemble, and ev̄y of theym, p̄sonalli to appere at the seid next sessions of the Peas next after the seid p̄clamacion to be holden within the seid countie; at whiche day if the seid maister or maisters principall or principallis leder or leders or any other of the forseid offenders appere, then he or they be put to answeere therunto if it seme to the seid Justices resonable, and be put to sufficient bail by reconisaunce before the seid Justices to appere p̄sonelly from Sessions to Sessions unto tyme that the compleynt be discussed, And if he or they refuse so to doo then he or they be cōmitted to Warde ther to remayne till they will; and if eny of the p̄sones ayenst whom such compleynt or inditement is had or made dwell in any other countie [then'] in the same Countie where suche riotte rout and assemble is made, that then the Justices, to or afore whome the same compleynt or inditement is had or made, do send a transcripte of the same compleynt or inditement to some Justices of the Peas in the Countie where such p̄sone is dwelling, desiring hym to cause p̄clamacion to be made in the next gen̄all Sessions of the Peas in that Countie to be holden, that the same p̄sone or p̄sones appere at the next [gen̄all'] Sessions of the Peas in the Shire where the seid riotte is don next after the same p̄clamacion to be holden; and if the same p̄sone or p̄sones dwelling in a foren shire appere, then like order to be hadde for hym or theym so appering as is afore specified for and to theym that be dwelling in the seid Shire where the seid riotte is supposed to be doon or made; And if the same p̄sone or p̄sones or any of theym ayenst whom such p̄clamacion is made in the Countie where the seid riot is supposed to be doon, and they be dwelling at the tyme of the same p̄clamacion making in the same Countie, make defeaute and appere not atte seid gen̄all Sessions to hym or theym lymyted in the seid p̄clamacion, and eftsones after that make defeaute and appere not at the next gen̄all Sessions after that, so that like p̄clamacion be made as is aforeseid, And if any of the seid riottours ayenst whom p̄clamacion is made in a foren Shire where they be dwelling make defeaute at the day and place in the seid p̄clamacion to theym lymyted, then he or they, in whether of the seid Shires they dwell that so make defeaute, to stand and be adjudged and convicte upon the same defaultis of the seid riotte and unlauffull assemble, as if he or they were therof convicte by the due ordre of the lawe; without he or they can make suche lauffull excuse as the seid Justices shall think resonable by ther discrecion and therupon such p̄ces to be awarded ayenst theym as is accustomed upon condemnacions of trespas in youre Comen Benche at the sute of the Party: And that the seid Justices of Peas have auctorite and power to here and det̄myn the reherced causes aswell upon bill before theym as by enditementes, and upon the same bill or inditements to p̄cede and det̄myn the same by enquestes according to the course of the comen lawe, and the p̄tye therby and therupon to stande convict as p̄fitely as if they ware therupon convicte by due p̄ces of the lawe; THE King oure Sōveign Lord of his mooste godely and gracious disposicion calling to his remembraunce howe that p̄jurie in this londe is in manyfolde causes by unresonable meanes detestably used, to the disheritaunce and great damage of many and greete nombre of his subgettis well disposed, and to the mooste high displeasure of all myghty God, the goode statutes ageynst all officers havynge retourne of Writtes and their Deputies making panelles parcially for rewardes to theym geven, ageynst unlawfull mayntenours ymbraours and Jurours, and ageynst Jurours untruly gevyng ther verdite, notwithstanding: For reformation of the same by the King oure Sōveign Lord and the lordis spūall and tempall and the Comens in this p̄sent parliament assembled and by auctorite of the same, be it enacted ordeyne and establisshed, that upon evy untrue verdite hereafter geven betwixt parte and partie, in any suyte playnte or demaunde before Justices of recorde where the thing in demaunde and verdite therupon geven extendith to the value of xli. and concōneth not the jopdie of mannys lyfe, the partie greved by the same verdite shall have a writte of Atteynt ageynst evy p̄sone hereafter so gevyng an untrue verdite and evy of theym, and ageynste the partie which shall have Jugement upon the same verdite; and that in the same atteynte there shalbe awarded ageynst the petite Jurie the p̄ty and the graund Jury soñi and resoñi and distres infynyte; which graunde Jury shall be of like nombre as the graund Jury is now in atteynte; and evy of theym that shall passe in the same shall have londes and tenementis to the value of xx" marc by the yere of freeholde oute of auncien demeane; and upon the distresse, which shalbe delyved of recorde upon the same, open p̄clamacion to be made in the Courte ther where the distres shall be awarded, more then xv. daies afore the retourne of the same distresse, and evy suche distresse shalbe made upon the londe of evy of the seid graunde Jury as in other distresses is and hath be used; and if the seid partie defendaute or the petite Jurours or any of theym appere not uppon the distresse, then the graund Jury to be taken ageynst them and evy of theym that shall so make defaute; and if any of the seid pety Jury appere, then the party compleynaunt in that behalf shall assigne the false serement of the first verdite untruly geven, wherunto they of the petite Jury shall have none aunswere, if they be the same p̄sones and the writte processe retourne and assignement good and lauffull, excepte that the demaundaunt or playntif in the same Atteynt hath afore be nonsute or discontinued his suyte of any attent taken for the same verdite, or hath for the same verdite in a writte of Atteynte had juggement ayenst the seid petite Jury, but only that they made true verdite; which issue shalbe tried by xxiiijth of the seid graunde Jury; and the partie shall plede that they gave true verdite or any other matier which shalbe a sufficient barre of the seid atteynte; and that p̄lee notwithstanding the graund Jury to be taken without delaye to enquire wheder the firste Jurie gave true verdite or noe; and if they fynde that the seid pety Jury gave an untrue verdite, then evy of the seid petit Jury to forfeite xx li. wherof the one halfe shall be to the King oure Sōveign Lorde and thoder halfe to the parte that sueth; And ov̄ that that evy of the seid pety Jury shall sevvally make fyne and raunsome by the discrecion of the Justices before whome the seid false serement shalbe founde after their sevvall offences defautes and sufficiencye of evy of the seid petie Jury; And after that that those of the seid petie Jury so atteynted shall nev̄ after be of any credence nor their ooth accepted in any Courte. And if such p̄lee as the partie pledith which is a barre of the seid atteynt be founde or demed ayenste hym that so pledeth, then the partie that so sueth shall have Jugement to be restored to that he loste with his reasonable costes and damages;

Forseen alwey that any outelawry in any accion or cause psonell, or excōmēgement pleded or alleged in the partie playntif or demaundaunt, shall be taken but as a voide plee and to that he shall not be putte to aunswere; and that in all thafforſeid pces ſuche day ſhalbe geven as is in a Writte of Dower, and none eſſoyne or proteccion to lye nor to be allowed in the ſame. And if the ſeid graunde Jury appere not upon the firſt diſtreſſe had agaynſt theym ſo that the Jurye for their defaute do remayne, he that makith defaute ſhall forfeite to the King xx s. and upon the ſeconde diſtreſſe xl s. and after making defaute for evy ſuche defaute v li. and like penaltees and forfeitures to be ageynſt theym and evy of them that ſhalbe named in the tales as is afore expreſſed ageynſt evy of the ſeid graunde Jury aforeſeid; and that for and by the deth of the party or any of the ſeid petit Jurye the ſeid Atteynt ſhall not abate nor be deferred ageynſt the remenant, as longe as ij of the ſeid petite Jury be alve.

And if hereafter any fals verdite be geven in any accion ſute or demaunde afore any Juſtice of recorde of any thing psonell as dette trespas and other like which ſhalbe undre the value of xl li. that then the partye greved ſhall have atteynt with ſuch proces and ples as is afore reherced, and delayes to be taken away as before is remembred; excepte that in this caſe of atteynt evy pson of the graunde Jury that may diſpende v. marſ by yere of free holde out of auncien demeane or is worth a C m<sup>re</sup> of godes and catalles, ſhalbe able to paſſe in the ſame atteynt; and if the pety Jurye bee atteynted that then they ſhall in this caſe of Atteynt evy of theym forfeite but v li. wherof oon halfe ſhalbe to the King and the other halfe to the partie after the fourme afore reherced, And over that to make fyne and raunſome by the diſcrecion of the Juſtices as is aforeſeid.

And iſſe ther be not psones of ſuche ſufficiencie within the Shire where any of the ſeid atteyntes ſhalbe taken as may paſſe in the ſame, be it ordeyned by the auſtorite abovesaid, that then the tales ſhalbe awarded into the Shire nexte adjoynnyng by the diſcrecion of the Juſtices afore whom the ſame atteyntes ſhalbe taken, which ſhall be warned to appere upon like peynes as is aforeſeid and enabled to paſſe in the ſeid atteyntes as if they were dwelling in the Shire where the ſame atteynt ſhalbe taken.

And that the ſame lawes accion and remedy ordeyned by this pſent acte be kepte for and to all theym that ſhalbe greved by ſuche untrue verdites of any enheritaunce in diſcent reſcion or remaynder, or of any freehold in reſcion or remaynder. And if p<sup>r</sup> partie in atteynte geveyn by this acte be none ſuyte or the ſame diſcontynue that then the ſame partie ſo nonſuyte or ſo diſcontynuyng the ſeid atteynt make fyne and raunſome by the diſcrecion of the Juſtices afore whom the ſame atteynt ſhalbe taken and depending. And that all atteyntes hereafter to be taken ſhalbe taken afore the King in his Benche or afore the Juſtices of the Comen place, and [in none<sup>1</sup>] other Courtes; And that Niſi prius ſhalbe graunted by diſcrecion of the Juſtices upon the diſtres; and evy of the ſeid petite Jury may appere and aunswere by attourney in the ſeid atteynt: And that the moyte of the ſeid forfeiture of the petite Jury ſhalbe levyed to thuse of oure Sovereign Lorde by Capias ad ſatisfaciend<sup>r</sup> or fieri fac<sup>r</sup> or Elegit or by accion of dette, ayenſt evy pson of the pety Jury ſo forfeiting and ageynſt his executours and admyniſtratours having then ſufficient goodes of their ſeid testato<sup>r</sup> not admynyſtred; and thodre moite ſhall by like pces be levyed to thuse of the party that ſueth any atteynt geveyn by this acte, ageynſt evy of the ſeid peti Jury and his executours or admyniſtratours having then ſufficiencie of goodes as is aforeſeid not admynyſtred. ## CHAPTER LL

¶ John Shaa.

To the honorable and discrete Cōsens in this p[re]sents p[ar]liament assembled.

Recital of Will of Sir Edmund Shaa Mayor & Alderman of London.

IN full humble wise besechith and shewith unto youre grete Wisdoms, John Shaa, That where Sir Edmond Shaa Knight late Maire and Alderman of London nowe deceased, by his last Will amongst other thingis willed and declared, that Julian his wife ymmediatly after his decease shuld have and enjoye to her and to her assignes, all his Manoirs landis and te[n]tis rentis and vices with their appurtenaunces, whiche he then had purchaced within the Realme of Englonde, without empechement of waste; She theryn doying noe voluntarie waste ne destruction, the same Manoirs landes te[n]tis rentis rev[er]sions and vices with their appurtenaunces at that tyme, and tyme of his decease stondyng in feoffees handes to his use, and that all his feoffees therof shuld suffre hir so to doo, and that they shuld be and abide feoffees therof to hir use and behofe during all hir lyfe, And that aftir her decease, Hugh son of the said Sir Edmond shuld have all the said Manoirs londes te[n]tis rentis and vices with their appurtenauncis, undir this fourme, that is to sey; The Manoirs of Ardarn Hall and Horndon Hous to him and to his heires males of his body laufullly begoten, And for lacke of suche issue male of his body laufullly begoten, then the remaynder of the same two Manoirs with appurtenaunces to be to your seid Oratour and to the heires males of his body laufullly begoten, and for lacke of suche issue male of his body laufullly begoten, then the remaynder of the same two Maners to the right heires of the said Sir Edmond for e[ve]rmore, And that the said Hugh shuld have all the other landes and te[n]tis rentis and vices of the said Sir Edmond whatsoev[er] þat they then were with their appurtenaunces to hym and to his heires for e[ve]rmore; And that the said feoffees of the said Sir Edmond aftir the decease of his said Wyfe, shuld make astates sufficient in the lawe of and in all his Manoirs londes te[n]tis rentis rev[er]sions and vices aforesaid with the appurtenauncis, when they shuld be resonably required therunto according to his entent above declared, and in none otherwise, ner in none other fourme, as in the same last Will redy to be shewed more pley[nly] apperith. And after that, the said Sir Edmond deceased, after whos decease the said Julian late his wife had and enjoyed to her and hir assignes, all the said Manoirs landes te[n]tis rentis and vices with their appurtenaunces duryng hir lyfe; And all the said feoffes of and in all the said Manoirs landes te[n]tis rentis and vices with thappurtenaunces, suffred hir so to doo, and the said Hugh aftir the deth of the said Sir Edmond, deceased without heire male of his body begoten. And the seid Juliane aftir is also deceased, so that nowe the seid Manoirs of Ardarn Hall and Horndon Hous apperteign and of righte belonge to your seid Oratour, to have and to hold to him and to theires males of his body begoten, And for lacke of suche issue the remaynder therof to be to the right heires of the seid Sir Edmond; by reason wherof your seid Oratour sith the decease of the seid Juliane hath had and occupied and yette hath and occupieth the seid Manoirs of Ardarn Hall and Horndon Hous accordyng to the last wille of the seid Sir Edmond; Nevthelesse so it is, that the evidences conchyng the same Maners with thappurtenaunces &c. in especiall a Dede wherof astate was therof made to the seid feoffees, ben embeselled by meanes of ill disposed poones to your seid Oratour unknowen, So that your seid Oratour hath not ne can have knowlege of the names of the seid feoffees, that shuld execute and make astate therof, accordyng to the seid last Wille of the seid Sir Edmond, and for lacke therof your seid Oratour can not have nor cause astate to be made to hym of the seid two Manoirs of Ardarn Hall and Horndon Hous with their appurtenaunces, according to the seid last wille of the seid Sir Edmond, whiche myght hereafter cause great division and debate to be hadde betwene your seid Oratour and his heires males of his body, and theym that wold wrongfully clayme the same contrarye to the seid last wille of the seid Sir Edmond, which shuld be ayenst Right and Conscience; It may be therefore ordeyned stabilished and enacted by your grete wisdoms, by thassent of the Lordes spūall and tempall and by auctorite of this p̄sent plament, that your seid Oratour may have holde and enjoye the seid Manoirs of Ardarn Hall and Horndon Hous with thappurtenaunces to him and to theires males of his body laufullly begoten, according to the seid last wille of the seid Sir Edmond ageynst the seid feoffees and their heires and all other poones and their heires, havynge claymyng or p̄tendyng any thing therein or any pcell therof tyme of the decease of the seid Sir Edmond, to thuse of the same Sir Edmond and of his heires, and also ayenst the heires of the same Sir Edmond and their heires.

SAVYNG to the same heires of the same Sir Edmond and their heires, all suche right title and interest as they have in the same Manoirs for lacke of issue male of the body of the seid John laufullly begoten as is afore rehersed; and savyng also to theym any other title that they maye clayme otherwise then by the seid Sir Edmond; and youre seid Oratour shall continually pray to God for your p̄sperous astates.

Certain Estates devised by his Will have come to John Shan.

The Deeds lost, so that Conveyance cannot be made to him by the Trustees under the Will.

The said John Shan shall hold such Estates according to the said Will.

II.
General Saving of Title.

CHAPTER LIX.

¶ John Slyngesby.

To the Kinge our Sovereign Lorde.

Recital of Outlawry of John Slyngesby, on Indictment for Treason in 4 Hen. VII;

And also on an Appeal of Murder in 4 Hen. VII;

IN the moost humble wise beseechith your Highnes, your humble subget and true liegeman John Slyngesby the elder; That whereas afore cōteyn your Justices and Cōmyssioners to enquire of High treasons and other causes assigned in the iijth yere of your most noble reign at York, youre said subget was indited of High treason for cōteyn causes and consideracions afore your said Justices, pēnted and retourned afore Your Highnes in your bench at Westm, upon whiche by pcesses made your said subget is outlawed and an utlarie into him therupon pmulged; And also gracious Sovereign Lord so it is, that aboute the fest of Seynt Bartilmewe thappostle in the secund yere of your most noble reign by nyght tyme, oon John Walcheford then being a Seyntuarie man of Rypon, in the Company of other Sentuarie men of the same place, And of other myschevous and evyll disposed psones to the nombre of lx, intēdyng burgularie and feloniously to have broken the hous of your said Subget, and to have robbed murdered and killed hym, he then beyng in Goddes peas and youre Sovereign Lord in his bed att Northcodeley, made assaunte into your said subget, shotyng arrowes and other griefis doing unto your said subget, ayenst whiche myschevous and ill disposed psones beyng in their said felonious entent and purpos, your said subget with his menyall āvauntes to the noubre of viij psones and no moo, God helpyng, made defence, shotyng arrowes att theym, and with an arrowe oute of the said hous fortunēd the said John Walcheford to be streken, whereof he died, upon whiche oon Agnes that was the wyfe of the same John Walcheford hath sued appell agaynst oon John Slyngesby then the yonger Son of your said subget as principall, And agaynst your said Subget as accessarie, for the deth of the said John Walcheford hir husband, wherupon pcesse contynued till the said John Slyngesby his yonger Son as principall was outlawed, and afore any outlarye was pmulged into your said subget or upon the same appell, the said Agnes toke to husband oon William Leke att Northallerton, wherby hir appell abated, nevpelesse pcesse contynued agaynst your said subget, wherupon an utlagarie aftir that the same Agnes had taken the said William Leke to Husband, was into your said subget pmulged, And for so muche as the same utlagarie is arronious, And also for that you gracious Sovereign Lord of your espēciall grēce have pdoned you said subget all treasons murders felonies and other offences agaynst your peas doon or cōmytted by your seid subget, afore the xxij day of Novembr in the xth yere of your moost noble reign, That it wolle please your Highnes of your more especiall grace and blisshed dispocion, by the advyce and assent of your Lordes spūall and tempall and the Comens in this p̄sent plament assembled and by auctorite of the same, to ordeyn establiash and enacte that the seid inditement of High treason and also the seid appell, and also all p̄cesses hadde made or sued or hereaftir to be sued, of or uppon the seid inditement of high treason att youre sute Sovereign Lord, and of or upon the seid appell att the sute of the seid Agnes for the deth of the seid John Walcheford late hir husband agaynst your seid subgette by what name soeᵛ he be called in the same inditement or appell, be voide and of no force strength nor effecte; and that all other inditementis p̄sentementis and inquisicions taken afore any of your Coroners of your Countie of York Justices of Peas Justices of gaole delyver within the Westrithing the Estrithing or the Northrithing of yo<sup>r</sup> seid Countie, or within your Citie of Yorke, or afore any oᵑ<sup>r</sup> your Justices by your speciall Cōmyssion, assigned to enquire of for or upon all and eᵛy treasons murders felonies or other offences agaynst your peas doon or cōmytted by your seid subget, by what name so he be callid, afore the xxijth day of Novembr in the xth yere of your moost noble reign, and all p̄cesses therupon had made or sued or hereaftir to be had made or sued at your sute Sovereign Lord, be voide and of no force strength nor effect: And that all utlagaries into your seid subget by what name so he be named or callid, p̄mulged of or upon the seid inditement of high treason or of or upon the seid appell, or of or upon eny of the seid inditementis p̄sentementis or inquisicions taken afore any Coroners or Justices as is afore rehersed and eᵛy of theym, be also voide and of noo force strength nor effecte; And that your seid subget forfeit not any man<sup>r</sup> goodes catalles londes or tētis or other hereditamentis by reason of any suche utlagarie into him p̄mulged of or upon eny the p̄mysses, And that the seid inditement of high treason nor the seid appell nor any of the seid other inditementis p̄sentementis or inquisicions, nor yet any utlagarie therupon or of any of theym into your seid subget p̄mulged, by what name or names soeᵛ your seid subget be in this or any of theym named, be hurtfull nor in any wise p̄judiciall to your seid subget nor his heires, nor to any p̄sone or p̄sones att eny tyme feoffe or feoffes to his use, but be ayenst theym and eᵛy of theym voide and of no force strength nor effecte.

And by the same auctorite it may be ordeyned established and enacted, that your seid subget be inabled to have enjoye and possede all and eᵛy his enheritaunces, aswell by him purchaced as to hym disceded, or that hereaftir shall disced, aftir and by the deth of eny his Auncestres whereto he att eny tyme was or nowe is inheritable, in as large maner and fourme as though the seid utlagaries or eny of theym had neᵛ be hadde p̄mulged nor executed, And that your seid subget and his heires and all feoffee and feoffees to his use may have suche avauntage in eᵛy thing and be in as gode condicion in the lawe, as if the seid utlagaries into your seid subget of or upon the p̄mysses or eny of theym p̄mulged, had neᵛ be had nor p̄mulged, And as if the seid inditement of high treason nor appell nor the seid other inditementis p̄sentementis nor inquisicions had neᵛ be inquired of p̄sented had made or p̄sued; and that this acte be as good effectuall and available in the lawe to your seid subget and his heires, as if the said utlagaries and eᵛy of theym were revsed by meane of errour aftir the due order of your Lawes, and as if your seid subget were arreyned and lausfully acquite of the seid treason and murders and felonies conteyned in the seid appell, and of thother felonies murders and treasons in eny of the seid inditementis p̄sentementis and inquisicions specified or conteyned, by verdiḡt accordyng to the due order of your seid lawes.

The King's Pardon to him of all Treasons, Murders, &c. committed before 22 Nov. 10 Hen. VII.

The said Indictment and Appeal against him declared void; as also all other Indictments and Inquisitions against him for Offences previous to said 22 Nov. 10 H.VII. as also all Outlawries thereon;

and no Forfeiture shall be incurred thereby;

No such Indictment, &c. shall prejudice him or his Heirs.

And that all p<sup>er</sup>sones be charged and bounde by the seid ording and assessing according to the effe<sup>ct</sup>e of the same : And the seid s<sup>u</sup>mes for the seid aide and subsidie, in fourme aforesaid ordrid and assessed, aswell the seid orderours and assessours in the seid Shires or vj of theym at lest, as in the seid Citees and Buroughs or iiij of theym at lest, shall name Collectours for the levye of the same aide and subsidie, and c<sup>er</sup>tifie undre their seales the names of the seid Collectours for the first halfe of the seid aide and subsidie into the Kingis Eschequer byfore the morowe after the feste of the ascencion of our Lorde next cōmyng, and that the Collectours to be named and assigned to gadre and levye the seid aide and subsidie, shall have full auctorite & power after viij dayes next ensuyng the seid assessing, to levy and gadre the same, and for nounpayment therof to distreyn take and appreyse indifferently and sell asmych of the goodes or catallis of evy p<sup>er</sup>son within the Shires Citees or Buroughes where they shalbe Collectours, as shall ave for the payment of suche s<sup>u</sup>me or s<sup>u</sup>mes of money which evy of theym shalbe ordred and assessed to pay, not charging eny p<sup>er</sup>son but only for the some uppon hym assessed, and for nounpayment of eny s<sup>u</sup>me of Money ordred and asseste in fourme aforesaid on eny p<sup>er</sup>son that it shalbe lefull to the seid Collectours to distreyn take appreyse indifferently and sell asmyche of the goodes and catalles, of the fermers and tenauntis of any of the same p<sup>er</sup>sones so assessed not paying, as shall serve for the payment of suche s<sup>u</sup>mes of Money as shall upon p<sup>ro</sup>p<sup>er</sup> seid p<sup>er</sup>sones for nat making payment be ordred and assessed, as ferre as the rent or ferme of the seid fermour or ten<sup>ant</sup> shall sevallly extende unto for halfe a yere and nat ferther ; And that no p<sup>er</sup>son or p<sup>er</sup>sones be distreyned, or his goodes or catalles taken for any s<sup>u</sup>me upon hym ordred and assessed, but after suche rate and in suche Tounes Citees Buroughes and placis where his londres or his goodes be, for which he is assessed ; also that the seid assessours in evy Shire or vj of theym at lest, and that the Sessours and orders in evy of the seid Citees and Buroughes specified in the seid Cedula or iiij of theym at lest, shall by writyng indented undre their sealis delyver to the Collectours of the seid aide and subsidie within viij dayes next after the seid assessing the names and s<sup>u</sup>mes of evy p<sup>er</sup>son which they shalbe appoynted and lymtyed to gadre by the seid writyng.

AND over that yt is ordeyned by the seid auctorite, that if the goodes or catalles of eny fermour or ten<sup>ant</sup> of any p<sup>er</sup>son assessed to pay to this aide and subsidie be taken distreyned or sold by the Collectours of the seid aide and subsidie for nounpayment of the same p<sup>er</sup>sones so assessed, that then suche fermour and tenaunt and their executours heiers and deputies shall retayne in his and their handes, upon the next payment and paymentis for evy, as myche money as he or they shalbe endamaged or hurte for the seid nonepayment.

AND o<sup>ve</sup>r this be it ordyned by auctorite of this p<sup>re</sup>sent parliament, that no p<sup>er</sup>son comen by youre high cōmaundment to this p<sup>re</sup>sent plement for any Shire Citee Burgh Port or other place, or any of the seid Justices of Peas or oder p<sup>er</sup>sones in the seid Cedula namyd, and Clerkys upon the same Parliament attendyng, be in any wise made Collectour of the said aide and subsidie or eny parte therof, but of such colleccion in evy m<sup>an</sup>er be utterly quyte and discharged ; And also that no Collectour now to be chosyn be charged ferther then to the colleccion of halfe the seid aide and subsidie by this p<sup>re</sup>sent acte graunted.

And further be it ordeyned by the seid auctorite that such Collectours and evy of theym as shalbe assigned for the Collectiō of the seid aide and subsidie, upon the making of their accomptes in youre Eschequer be quyte and discharged in the same Eschequer for payment of all maner of fees and rewardes ther to be asked concyning the same accompte and evy pte therof; And also that the seid Collectours and evy of theym have like allowaunce upon ther accomptes of fees waiges and rewardes for ther Collectiō of evy of the seid half aide and subsidie, in as large maner and fourme as any Collectour or Collectours of xv<sup>m</sup> and x<sup>m</sup> have had at any season in tymes passed.

And ov<sup>r</sup> this be it enacted by the seid auctorite that if any rescue be made upon any Collectour, and then the same Collectour namyd or to be namyd shalbe to any of the Justices of Peas within eny suche Shire Cite Burghes or Towne where any poone make suche rescue of any distres to be takyn by suche Collectour or Collectours or their Serrantes or assignes for any cause aforesaid, that then ymmediatly upon the same Certificat the same Justice of Peas or any other Justice of Peas within the same Shire have power to comytte hym or theym that makyth suche rescues to Warde, or to make a capias to take suche poone or poones makinge suche rescues and to comytte theym to prison ther to remayne without bail or mayntene by the discrecion of the seid Justice; And that the seid Justices and evy of theym have power without delays to here and delivyn the seid offense aswell by pte examynaciō as owerwise; And if eny such poone be convicted therof then he to remayne in prison till the money for the which the seid distres was taken be fully content and payde, and further till he or they so convicted have made fyne for ther offenses in this behalfe by the discreciōs of the seid Justices.

And also be it enacted by the seid auctorite that if any poone so assessed or to be assessed pay not accordyng to the seid cessing, and the seid Collectours can nat fynd any sufficient distres for the payment of suche some of Money to be assaid and levied upon any such poone after the fourme aforesaid, and pclamacion therof made by the same Collectours in the next Market Towne therto adjoyning in the seid Countie, And then yf the same Collectours shalbe into the Kyngis Eschequer that no suche sufficient distres can be founde for the payment of the same some of Money, that then the same poone shall pay unto the Kyng the double some of the same Money so upon hym assessed not paid within xv. dayes next after the seid Certificat made, and the Collectours of the Payment of the same some of Money then to be discharged.

Be it also enacted that the Collectours to be assigned for the Countie of Suth<sup>r</sup>, nat dwelling within the Isle of Wight, be not charged ner chargeable for the Collectiō of any xv<sup>m</sup> or x<sup>m</sup> aide or subsidie aforesaid or hereafter to be graunted, which shalbe payable assessed or to be levied within the seid Ile, but that they be therof from hensfourth for ev<sup>r</sup> discharged. And that suche Collectours as shall hereafter be assigned for the seid Countie of Suth<sup>r</sup>, dwelling within the Ile of Wight, be not charged ne chargeable for any xv<sup>m</sup> & x<sup>m</sup> aide or subsidie aforesaid or hereafter to be graunted which shalbe payable assessed or to be levied within the seid Countie oute of the seid Ile of Wight, but that they that dwell within the seid Ile shalbe therof uttly fromhensfourth discharged for ever.

Be it also enacted by the auctorite aforesaid that all Constables within this Reame shall favour helpe and assiste the seid Collectours for the Collectiō of the same within the Cite hundred Burghes Towne or Village where any of theym shalbe Constable.

PROVIDED alwey that the Maire Baillifs and [other] of evy Burghes Corporat wherof thenhitautes have not used to be charged to make collectiō of eny gen<sup>l</sup> xv<sup>m</sup> & x<sup>m</sup> oute of the seid Boroughes, that thenhitautes within the same Boroughes be not charged to the Collectiō of eny some or somes to be assessed after the forme abovesaid oute of the seid Boroughes, and that they within theym selfe shall make collectiō of suche somes of money as shalbe assessed within their jurisdiction to be levied, and the same somes of money to deliv<sup>r</sup> to the Collectours to be namyd as is above said for that Shire where they have ther beyng.

PROVIDED also that no poone nor poones be assessed ne charged by graunt of the seid aide and subsidie for any goodes or catallis in any other place then ther as he or they dwellyth; Excepte that evy poone and poones be charged to the same aide and subsidie for ther quycke catell where the same quycke catell ys couchant and levaunt and for their Corne where the same Corne grewe and remayneth in the Berne Garner or in Stackis; and that evy poone or poones that hath or holdith eny house or place wherin be of they or any poone for hym or theym usith to by or sell eny goodes or catallis at retaile pay to the seid aide and subsidie after the rate abovesaid ther as he or they so retailyth.
